“Living Local: A Community Coupon Book for Central Oregon,” a fundraiser for the Waldorf School of Bend, will be available for purchase beginning today at the school’s May Faire Festival.

The book, which costs $20, contains 150 coupons from local merchants and is designed to help build an economically stable and socially sustainable community in Central Oregon by keeping dollars in the area, according to organizers. Coupons will not expire until November 2010, giving book owners a full 18 months of savings.

The book will be available for purchase at several Bend locations including at the festival, the Waldorf School (63175 O.B. Riley Road), VisitBend (917 N.W. Harriman St.), the Tower Theatre (835 N.W. Wall St.) and the Des Chutes Historical Museum (129 N.W. Idaho Ave.).
